

Unique two bedroom Grade II registered detached cottage, originally two farm cottages and listed in various publications as a property of historical interest. Having undergone a comprehensive refurbishment, including rewire, gas central heating system, replaced 'sash' windows, new kitchen, bathroom and landscaped rear garden. This stunning property has been tastefully remodelled and improved by the current owner, while retaining many original features, and viewing is a must to truly appreciate what's on offer. The property is situated in the sought after village of Elwick, close to a good range of local amenities including pubs, Ofsted rated 'outstanding' primary school and local farms selling fresh local produce. The property is within easy reach of Hartlepool, with great transport links to the North and South via the nearby A19.

The accommodation briefly comprises of: entrance, fitted kitchen with a range of appliances, open plan lounge and dining area with Inglenook fireplace, multi-fuel burner and ornate staircase. From the kitchen is a useful rear lobby and large pantry. To the first floor are two double bedrooms and a modern white and chrome family bathroom.

Externally there is a double gate to the side for access to the landscaped rear garden, with off street parking for three cars. The stunning rear garden has a sunny decking area, decorative slate chippings and wood store.
